

Revolut brings Revolut Mobile to its more than 3 million customers: 120GB at full speed for €14.99

- Revolut Mobile offers unlimited calls, texts and data in Germany for €14,99 per month, cancellable monthly and with no hidden costs. Data runs at full speed for the first 120 GB, then continues unlimited at 2 Mbit/s.
- With download speeds of up to 100 Mbit/s via the network of Telefónica Deutschland, Revolut Mobile delivers fast and reliable connectivity across Germany.
- Together with telecoms partner 1GLOBAL, customers can activate their plan in seconds directly within the Revolut app.

Berlin, 14 October 2026 – Revolut, the global financial platform serving more than 80 million customers worldwide, today launches Revolut Mobile in Germany in partnership with telecommunications provider 1GLOBAL. The plan - offering 120 GB at full speed and unlimited data at 2 Mbit/s thereafter - is available to more than 3 million customers, is cancellable on a monthly basis and costs €14.99 per month. With this step, Revolut enters a new market with the ambition to offer exceptional value for money, without compromising on speed or flexibility.

Revolut Mobile stands for simplicity, transparency and genuine value. The entire service is managed within the Revolut app. Customers can activate their plan in seconds, with no contract, no switching fees and no hidden costs:

- Unlimited for €14.99 per month: Unlimited data (120 GB at full speed, followed by unlimited data at reduced speed of 2 Mbit/s), calls and texts in Germany with download speeds of up to 100 Mbit/s via the network of Telefónica Deutschland.
- EU Roaming: 40 GB of Europe-wide roaming without speed throttling.
- Number portability: Customers can keep their existing number, request a new one, or upgrade to a particularly memorable VIP number of choice for an additional fee.
- RevPoints: Customers can pay for their monthly plan in full or in part using their accumulated RevPoints.

In addition, all Revolut Mobile customers in Germany benefit from a range of exclusive features directly within the app:

- All-in-one eSIM: Local plan and international travel benefits on a single eSIM – no SIM swapping required.
- Messaging Pass: Even outside their regular data allowance, customers have access to messaging apps in over 140 countries via unlimited bandwidth connections with a speed of 2 Mbit/s.

- NordVPN: Every plan includes a free NordVPN subscription for secure and private connections.
- Additional numbers: Customers can manage up to three additional numbers simultaneously on a single plan – ideal for separating work and personal life, or for protecting the primary number from unwanted calls or spam.

Elyas Sadou, General Manager at Revolut, commented: "With Revolut Mobile, we're bringing the same disruptive energy to telecoms that we brought to banking. We are combining top-tier connectivity with the best service, price and user experience. We're proving that mobile service can be incredibly straightforward. This is telecoms rebuilt for the way we actually live today."

Hakan Koç, Founder and CEO of 1GLOBAL, added: "Working with Revolut continues to be one of the most exciting partnerships in our portfolio, supporting their growth of Revolut Mobile across key markets. Mobile connectivity is a true differentiator for digital champions like Revolut. We are proud to power Revolut Mobile with our technology, enabling Revolut to offer mobile services that are faster to activate, simpler to manage and more transparent than traditional offerings."

Jörg Kablitz, Chief Partner & Wholesale Officer at Telefónica Deutschland, commented: "Our partnership with Revolut and 1GLOBAL marks a new chapter for Germany's mobile market. It shows how the wholesale business is evolving from traditional partnerships towards the platform economy - providing further growth. Telefónica Deutschland has the network and expertise to help digital brands turn their reach and customer relationships into integrated mobile services."

A successful startup under the Revolut umbrella

Revolut Mobile is a perfect example of Revolut's New Bets framework - launched as a commercial partnership with licensed provider 1GLOBAL - to bring a new telecom product to market as an internal startup within the organisation. Instead of getting bogged down in rigid, corporate decision-making, teams within Revolut are given the autonomy of a disruptor.

Combined with the extensive resources and existing ecosystem of Revolut, product lines can be built, tested and scaled at record speed. The result is an entirely new revenue stream that perfectly aligns with the strategy of building a resilient, diversified portfolio of financial and non-financial services to always stay one step ahead of the market. Revolut currently has eleven product lines, each generating more than €120 million in annual revenue.
